

Let Your Values Define Your Worth

Dear Amalites,

Every human being is valuable and deserves to be treated with dignity, respect and kindness. Your true worth is not measured by marks, achievements, wealth or status, but by the character you build and the values you live by.

As students of Rajagiri Amala, let honesty, respect, empathy, responsibility and compassion guide your thoughts, words and actions. Learn to value yourself, respect others, stand for what is right, and extend kindness to everyone around you.

Build your character. Honour every person. Live your values.
